FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 12, 2006

Student Entertainment Events Presents: The Colony Comedy Club featuring Ardie Fuqua!

Hilarious comedian Ardie Fuqua is coming to perform at the University of Maryland, College Park on March 29, 2006 as part of the Colony Comedy Club. The event will take place at 8:00 p.m. in the Colony Ballroom of the Stamp Student Union. Doors will open at 7:30 p.m. and the event is free of charge. Student comedian Matthew Mayer will open for Fuqua.

After earning journalism degree at Rutgers University, Ardie moved to New York City to peruse a career in comedy. He soon earned the respect of the comedy community and after a year, he became a regular at the Boston Comedy Club, Comedy Cellar and the Comic Strip.

Since performing at these clubs, Ardie has been seen on NBC's Friday Night Videos, HBO's Def Comedy Jam, and Apollo Comedy Hour. More recently, he has had notable performances on BET's Comic View. In the Fall of 2005 Ardie spent time showing off his stand up at colleges and universities all over the east coast, Montana, Idaho, and Washington State.

College students will enjoy the buzzing comedy club atmosphere that will be recreated in the Colony Ballroom. Refreshments and drinks will be available for the duration of the show.
