Student Entertainment Events Presents: Spring Comedy Show featuring Zach Galifianakis

Student Entertainment Events is pleased to announce an evening with stand-up comedian Zach Galifianakis on Monday, April 27. The event is free and will take place in the Grand Ballroom of the Adele H. Stamp Student Union-Center for Campus Life. Doors will open at 7:30 p.m. and the show will begin at 8 p.m.

After starting his stand-up gig in the back of a hamburger joint in New York City, in 1996 Galifianakis landed the recurring role of a stoner named Bobby in the sitcom "Boston Common." Since then, Galifianakis' most memorable film and television appearances include his roles in "Corky Romano," "Bubble Boy," "Into the Wild," and "Reno 911." He also performed for a "Comedy Central Presents" episode that includes a piano segment, and ends with an a cappella group singing while tights-wearing Galifianakis makes jokes with a flip chart.

Galifianakis was featured in Fiona Apple's 2006 music video for the song, "Not About Love," and later recruited by Kanye West for the second video for his song "Can't Tell Me Nothin." More recently, Galifianakis took part in the Be Funny or Die Tour with fellow comedians Demetri Martin, Nick Swardson, Andrea Savage and Will Ferrell.
