Student Entertainment Events Presents: Michael Ian Black

Witty Comedian and Actor, Michael Ian Black is coming to The University of Maryland, College Park on Thursday October 8th, 2005. The event will take place at 8 pm in the Grand Ballroom of the Stamp Student Union and is free of charge.

Most recognize Black recently from his witty commentary on the popular VH-1 Series, I Love the 70's/80's/90's. However, his always entertaining one-liners on VH-1 follow an extremely accomplished career in television, film, and theatre.

Black is creator and co-host of the weekly hit comedy show "Stella," and co-creator, executive producer, and lead performer in Comedy Central's "Viva Variety." His face can also be recognized from NBC's drama "Ed," comedy centrals "You wrote it, You Watch it," and guest appearances on "NYPD Blue" and "Spin City." College students are likely to recall him from the popular USA Films teen flick, "Wet Hot American Summer."

Black's acting and comical appearances continue to impress fans, and his funny, down to earth personality makes him a magnet for college students and young adults. This self-titled show, "The Awesome Life of Michael Ian Black," is sure to provide plenty of comic relief.
