Student Entertainment Events Presents: Recycled Percussion

Student Entertainment Events is pleased to announce Recycled Percussion on Wednesday March 28th. Doors for this event will open at 6:30 p.m. and the event will start at 7 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom in the Stamp Student Union. This event is free of charge.

Recycled Percussion is a rock music-oriented performance group akin to Broadway's STOMP, creating wild and entertaining musical pieces with only the use of recycled household items. The group formed in 2005 when a band of three drummers and a disc jockey came together.

The APCA, Campus Activities Magazine named Recycled Percussion the "Entertainer of the Year" and the "Best Music Group." Matt Lauer of The Today Show on NBC says they are "Amazing." And Mo Rocca of VH1 says Recycled Percussion "Rocks."

To arrange an interview or receive more press information, including press passes, please contact Michelle Rattner, the Student Entertainment Events' Public Relations Director by Monday March 26th at (301)-314-8498 or via email. When submitting a request include your name, press affiliation, and contact information.
