Student Entertainment Events Presents: The Streetball Legends

Student Entertainment Events welcomes The Streetball Legends to the University of Maryland! This troupe of highly talented and entertaining basketball players and street performers is bringing its jaw-dropping, eye-popping show to Ritchie Coliseum on Wednesday, February 15th at 8:00 pm. Doors open at 7:00 pm, and this event is free of charge for students with a valid UMCP ID. Off campus guests may purchase tickets for $10 the day of the event, at the Ritchie Coliseum Ticket Office.

Nationally recognized from the AND 1 Tour and Streetwise, Pat “Da Roc” Robinson joins Hugh “Baby Shaq” Jones, aka The Rawkus, who has been showcased on the Nike One on One Battleground Contest. The players, also including “JFK” and “Da Future,” aka Malloy Nesmith, elevate the game of streetball to new heights with a unique show conducted in a comic, free-wheeling style.

The Streetball Legends will take on seven randomly selected students from the University of Maryland in a basketball game. This exciting competition will be combined with live entertainment featuring hot new music, a spunky commentator, a series of interactive activities for the fans, and plenty of giveaways!
